SOCIAL SERVICES NUMBERS

If during your daily interaction with individuals in your community, you find someone in need of professional help - information and counseling are as close as the nearest telephone. Try your city and state organizations, such as the United Way, Family Service Association, YMCA and YWCA, Girls and Boys Clubs, local mental health centers and hospitals. Or look in the information pages of your phone book under children and family services, health, alcoholism, etc. If you can't find an appropriate agency to call near your home, the following national hotlines will be able to refer you to the service you need.

SOCIAL SERVICES, LOCAL

Don't know where to start locally? If you can not find the number you need here, check the community service phone number listings in the front section of your telephone directory. The telephone company usually lists human services information & referral hotlines and government services "all-purpose" numbers for our convenience.

MASONIC REGALIA

Providing Masonic regalia for purchase by Lodge members and visiting Masons is encouraged. The Lodge can procure a wide range of items at reasonable cost from many sources. Markup the prices to provide a reasonable profit for the Lodge and have them available for sale at each meeting. Here are some frequently used sources for Masonic regalia:
